

This billboard design, created for a local marine dealership, features hand-drawn illustrations made in ProCreate on an iPad Pro. The artwork was imported into Photoshop for text, branding, and formatting. Placed along Highway 10 eastbound to target summer lake-goers and watersport enthusiasts, the design aims to stand out from other marine dealers on the same route with its unique, illustrated style.